From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Rejoice in the Lord always is the theme off this Third Sunday of Advent. We don our rose-colored vestments and light the similar colored candle to signify the nearness of the Christmas Feast. While life still has its miseries, we choose to look at the blessings that grace affords, most especially the love, mercy and salvation that come to us through the Savior, Jesus Christ. Spread the cheer and enlighten the darkness around you. The cry of St. John the Baptist is heard this Sunday, "Prepare the way of the Lord." Reconciliation Monday this week is an opportunity to do just this by confessing and receiving absolution.

In Christ, Father Bob

CHRISTMAS MASS CARDS

If you would like to have someone remembered at all our Christmas Masses, Christmas cards are available at the main entrance of the church. The names may be returned in the collection basket or to the rectory.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

Christmas Flowers may be memorialized for those who would like someone remembered during the Christmas season. Please return the names in the envelopes which may be found at the main entrance of the church. All memorials will be published in the bulletin. You may place the envelope in any collection during the month of December.

CENTERING PRAYER

Be still & know that I am God!" Ps. 46:10

Centering Prayer helps us recognize & truly hear the still small voice of God in our lives. By being still & silent - quieting our mind & heart - we give our consent to God's presence & action within. Come "rest in God" for a few minutes with us in church, in front of the tabernacle, every 1st & 3rd Wed. of the month.

Meetings this month: Dec. 6 and Dec. 20 at 3:20-4 pm

Sunday Mass Presiders: Dec 23rd/24th

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

The last couple of weeks our 7th and 8th Grade students have been doing Bible work. The 7th Graders are reading and studying the healing miracles and our Confirmation class is summarizing passages of their choice. It made me think about my Bible that sits on my nightstand and doesn't get read as often as it should. I recently saw a Facebook challenge that stated, if we start reading the Gospel of Luke on December 1st and read one chapter a day, by the time Christmas arrives, we would have read through all 24 chapters. I decided to accept the challenge and began re-reading this Gospel. It is not too late to catch up and accept the challenge as well. If your Bible is not handy, you can go to biblegateway.com and read it online. It is a great activity to include in your Advent preparations.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

Isaiah rejoices over God's call in his life and the promise of restoration for all nations. As we continue in the season of Advent, what has brought some joy to you or your family?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the Thessalonians to be people of prayer and joy, open to the work of the Holy Spirit in their lives. Is there anything recently that has brought you joy?

Gospel:

John presents the religious leaders of Jerusalem as puzzled and uncertain as to who John the Baptist was. How do you approach friends or family in your life who are confused or questioning the faith?
