From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

It is profitable to meditate on the image of God as the heavenly cultivator, as we hear in Isaiah's vineyard and the vineyard in the Gospel parable. It leads us to the metaphor of the Church as God's vineyard today. God provides everything needed for a good harvest but we must heed the warning of those two stories. It is too easy to forget God's gracious care and view ourselves as independent and self-sufficient. The commands of worship, prayer, and bearing the fruits of justice and charity may seem burdensome or unnecessary, intruding on our time and convenience. But the branches that are not connected to the vine that is Christ will wither and die. Pope Francis convened a Synod in Rome on the Feast of St. Francis, saying that the church is in need of repair and renewal. It was a similar call that young Francesco of Assisi heard and responded to with great zeal, embracing the humility and poverty of Christ. Let's pray that the Holy Spirit working among the synod participants will lead us to more faithfully follow Christ and witness to his presence in the world.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

On October 15th at the 10:00 AM Mass, we will resume the Separate Liturgy for Children. During this Mass we bring the children from Pre-K to Grade 4 to the Parish Center to read and discuss the Gospel at an age appropriate level. On the day of their Baptism, it was our wish that they were to become part of the Body of Christ. As the first teachers of our faith to our children, it is our job as parents to be sure that we are at Mass each week. We invite you all to join us every week in the celebration of the Liturgy. It has been said that if you do something three or more times it becomes a habit. Let us all try to get back into the habit of attending Mass.

- Jeannine Iocco

CENTERING PRAYER

“The wisdom of Holy Moments will teach you how to become a great decision maker.”

THIS WEEK'S HOLY MOMENT PROMPT IS:

Do something extra to help out at home.

Helping out at home is a big responsibility. Let's take some time now to think about something that needs to get done at home, like the dishes or the laundry or cleaning up around the house...that ongoing "To Do" list. Now, think about how much it would help the people you live with if you completed that task!

Let's keep the Holy Momentum going!!

Enjoy your week and may you be blessed with many holy moments!!

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK—REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah uses the metaphor of a vineyard to express God's anger with Israel. How do you communicate your displeasure with a loved one?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Philippians that prayer and a positive attitude is key to settling our anxious hearts and minds. What have you been anxious about this week that using Paul's advice could help?

Gospel:

In the parable of the tenants, Jesus harshly criticizes the chief priests and elders of Jerusalem and traps them with their own judgment. How well do you accept legitimate criticism?
