From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to the Season of Hope in this new year of grace. It has been said that man can endure almost anything but cannot live without hope. Hope is a theological virtue that requires action. We can observe Advent effectively by expressing our hope in virtues deeds. Yes, hope is a desire, a longing for some future happiness, but it is endowed with a confidence that brims over in holy moments. Our ultimate hope is for union with God in our Lord Jesus Christ, our true fulfillment. Reinforcing the habit of daily prayer, scripture reading, celebrating Holy Mass and practicing the corporal and spiritual works of mercy will strengthen hope. We must be a people of hope in a world of darkness, drawing ever nearer to the Christ who comes to us.

Please participate in this Sunday's blood drive and join us at the Rosary Christmas Party December 8th and the Tree Lighting and caroling with refreshments on December 9th. Remember that the patronal feast of our diocese and nation is on December 8th, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

This week in our Religious Education classes, the students will learn about the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. This is an important lesson for our children as some may confuse it, and believe that it refers to the birth of Jesus without sin. We remind them that on this special feast day, we celebrate our mother Mary's conception without sin in the womb of her mother, St. Anne. This means that Mary is free from the original sin that was handed down to all humanity from Adam and Eve. December 8th is a holy day of obligation and the children are encouraged to attend Mass.

THIS WEEK'S HOLY MOMENT PROMPT IS:

Do the right thing regardless of what others might think.

The greatest moments of history happened when people did the right thing, even in the face of great opposition. Now, it's your turn! If you're not sure where to start, here are a few ideas: change the subject when someone starts to gossip, unfollow social media pages that promote unholy moments, and always do what you feel is the right thing.

Let's keep the Holy Momentum going!!

Enjoy your week and may you be blessed with many holy moments!!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

In prayer, the prophet Isaiah grieves over our sins that separates us from God. What sorrow or distress have you experienced over the past week?

Second Reading:

Paul offers up a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the many gifts the believers have received because of their faith in Jesus. As we begin the season of Advent, for what are you thankful?

Gospel:

Each Advent, the Gospel reading begins with Jesus instructing his disciples to watch carefully for the end times. How often do you think about the Second Coming of Jesus and judgment day?
