SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION FOR ADULTS -

RCIA - For information contact Deacon William

Molloy - deaconbill@olbs-queens.org

From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

The Second Sunday of Advent focuses our attention on John the Baptist and how we can prepare a highway for our God to enter our hearts. Repentance for sin opens our lives to divine mercy which in turn brings joy and hope. Even the best Christmas gifts cannot compete with the lasting joy that God wants to give us. We ought now examine our consciences and prepare to make a good confession before Christmas, either on a Saturday or on Reconciliation Monday.

Help decorate the church with trees, wreaths and evergreen roping Saturday morning at 10am in time for our Tree Lighting following this Saturday's 5pm Mass, December 9th. Hot chocolate, mulled wine and refreshments will be served while we join in singing some carols.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS RETIREMENT FUND

This weekend, your donation to the Retirement Fund for Religious will help with living expenses and the cost of health care for elderly religious who have no pension and only minimal Social Security benefits. Please be generous in the collection for our Elderly Religious.

CHRISTMAS MASS CARDS

Please return the names in the envelopes which may be found at the main entrance of the church. All memorials will be published in the bulletin. You may place the envelope in any collection during the month of December.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

This week our second grade students will learn how to "Examine their Conscience" in preparation for their First Reconciliation in February. They will come to realize that God blessed each of them with a gentle internal voice that encourages them to do good and to avoid evil. The lesson goes on to state that following their conscience will make them happy and avoiding it may make them restless and unhappy. God does not want them to be unhappy so he gives us the gift of Reconciliation so that he may fill us with His joy. What a great lesson for all of us to remember during this Advent season.

- Jeannine Iocco

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Academy shared by Sister Donna Smith, D.C.

"Begin today. One of the beautiful things about the idea of Holy Moments is that you can implement it immediately. You do not need to study it for year. No special qualifications are necessary."

THIS WEEK'S HOLY MOMENT PROMPT IS:

Give your full attention to others every day.

Whether you struggle to pay attention a lot, or just a little, take time every day this week to fully focus: sit straight. Look up. And do your bet to put in all your effort. These small moments will grow over time, and you'll be amazed at how you improve.

Let's keep the Holy Momentum going!!

Enjoy your week and may you be blessed with many holy moments!!

The prophet Isaiah offers comfort and hope to the Israelites who were captive in Babylon in proclaiming that the glory of the Lord is returning to Israel. Do you have family or friends who could use words of encouragement from you?

Second Reading:

Peter speaks of being at peace while we wait for the promise of new heavens and a new earth when Christ returns. What gives you peace of mind these days?

Gospel:

Fulfilling the prophecies of Isaiah, John the Baptist proclaimed the arrival of Jesus, "one mightier than I...(who) will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." Where do you sense the Holy Spirit present in your life?
