From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Last Autumn you may remember the bulletin insert of a letter addressed to all the faithful of the diocese from Bishop Brennan. He brought to our attention pressing issues such as the decline in mass attendance, the decline in the number of priests, and a decline in financial resources. One possible solution is to create partnerships among parishes so that resources and personnel may be shared. In today's bulletin, or on Flocknotes, you will see another letter, this one from our Regional Episcopal Vicar, Fr. Costello. He shares with us some discussion points from a meeting with clergy a few months ago. Please take a look and keep abreast of this developing situation. Your Parish Staff, Parish Council, and Finance Council have been discussing the issue and weighing a possible partnership with one of our neighboring parishes. Nothing has been decided at this early stage, but it seems clear that eventually all our parishes will be in partnership with another or others, and some of these partnerships will lead to mergers. In the meantime, let's do everything in our power to strengthen our active membership and financial footing and so secure a pastoral presence here for a long time to come.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

The Religious Ed office is buzzing with so many wonderful things. First Penance preparations, Confirmation retreat, Confirmation interviews, Saint reports, the list goes on and on. In the middle of the "organized chaos" I found a small slice of heaven. My friend, Estella Portes, introduced me to the Labyrinth at Sacred Heart Parish. If you are like me, I was not familiar with this type of prayerful, walking meditation. As I entered the Parish Hall, I was greeted by two ladies who were very knowledgeable with the process. The mood was perfectly set with light music playing and lighted candles. All I had to do was walk through the many paths of the Labyrinth to reach the center. It is at the center where we reach the fullness of God's love. The journey is marked with leaves that remind us of the many obstacles in our lives. We try to get closer to the center, but can easily get led in another direction. The center has six petals that hold different meanings. The experience was moving, peaceful, spiritual, and emotional all at once. If you ever have an opportunity to experience this ancient spiritual tool that helps one walk with God, I would highly recommend it.

- Jeannine Iocco

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

Job was overwhelmed with feelings of sadness and despair. How does your faith help you get through difficult times?

Second Reading:

Paul sees his "gospel" (the good news of Jesus Christ) as the center of his life. What do you think is the focus of your life?

Gospel:

At the start of Jesus's public ministry in Galilee, we hear he was purpose-driven in performing many healings and exorcisms, as well as preaching the good news of the kingdom of God. What could you do this week as an intentional act of charity or kindness?
