From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus continues his healing spree in the first chapter of St Mark's Gospel. It's a good reminder as Ash Wednesday approaches this week that divine help is only a simple request away. We might consider what needs healing in our lives, especially that which is caused by sin and unhealthy habits. Lent is a spiritual campaign during which we arm ourselves with the weapons of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Today is the World Day of Prayer for the Sick, since February 11th is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Our Lady is not on the calendar this year since it falls on a Sunday but in prayer we commend all who are ill to the Lord's healing grace. Anyone at the weekend Masses in need of the Anointing of the Sick, please remain in the front pew near the Holy Oils after Mass and you can receive this sacrament of healing. By a quirk of the calendar, today is also World Day of Marriage, since it falls on the Sunday before St. Valentine's Day. No, I am not going to invite those who wish to be married to come up after Mass, but we pray for our married couples and thank them for their faithful witness that reveals God's fidelity to us. And we pray also for marriages in need of healing, may our Lord Jesus and Our Lady of Lourdes watch over you and guide you to a renewed life together. P.S. Please don't ask for a dispensation from fasting and abstinence on Ash Wednesday to celebrate Valentine's Day. I suggest going out to dinner on Tuesday evening instead.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Before

After

The Religious Education office would like to send a big thank you to Mr. Al Lombardi for his beautiful work restoring our Nativity set. I asked Al at the volunteer appreciation party if he could possibly repair the hand of our St. Joseph statue that broke when I was packing it away after Christmas. He was more than happy to fix it. Al called a few days later to ask if this statue was part of a set, which it was, and he offered to clean and paint the entire set for us. The following week he sent his wife Fran, one of our 5th Grade catechists, to return the newly-painted statues. I was amazed by the beautiful work he did on all three pieces. They look brand new and I didn't want to put them away! Thank you so much Al for sharing your God-given talent and generosity with the Religious Education Office. It means more to us than you know!

VIDEO SERIES : FORGIVEN

This Lent, join us for a Life-Changing Study!
FORGIVEN: The Transforming Power of Confession is a 4-week video and discussion series beginning on February 15. Session One: Where Are You? Explores the question, "What are we to do with guilt?" Is it to be ignored, or does it present an opportunity we don't want to miss? The truth is, God seeks us out when we have sinned, not to scold or punish us, but to offer us his healing and his forgiveness. It's certainly true that God is omnipotent and just, but before all else he is our loving, merciful Father. All are welcome at 7:00 P.M. in the Parish Center. Please register by calling the rectory (718)229-5929, using the link or the QR code. <https://forms.gle/6gptEdDxFXms4b8k8>

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

We hear how ancient Israel was concerned about purity laws and the spread of disease, such as leprosy. How do you support people in your life who are suffering from disease or isolation?

Second Reading:

Paul encouraged the Corinthians to be selfless and kind to each other as a practical way of living out their faith. Is there a friend or co-worker who could benefit from your generosity toward them?

Gospel:

The healed leper disobeyed Jesus' command to remain silent and as a result, Jesus had to stay outside towns and in "deserted places." How do you deal with people in your life who disappoint or frustrate you? ©LPi
