From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

I can't type March 17th without saying Happy Saint Patrick's Day. Even though there is no liturgical celebration of the saint this year since Sunday takes precedence, we do have a month filled with parades, dances and observances to honor the Patron Saint of the Irish. We will have Saint Joseph's Day Masses this Tuesday to honor the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. St. Joseph is the patron of our neighboring countries to the north and south, Canada and Mexico, as well as the patron of the Universal Church. He is also a favorite of the Italians, who think he was Napolitan or Sicilian. Ssshhh! For that matter, don't let on to the Irish that Patrick was from Roman Britan.

As we begin Passiontide this Fifth Sunday of Lent, you will certainly notice that the crucifix and the images of the saints are veiled in purple. The Roman Missal allows this ancient tradition to alert us that something is different now. The absence of images heightens our senses. Aware of what is missing, our longing for the joy of Easter grows stronger. In the same way we suppress the Alleluia during Lent so as to welcome it back with exuberance at the Easter Vigil. The crucifix remains veiled until after the Good Friday celebration of the Lord's Passion, and the saints until prior to the Vigil. (Thank you to Melanie Boruch for sharing her sewing talents.)

With Palm Sunday and Holy Week beginning next week, I want to mention that beginning Holy Thursday at the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Precious Blood will again be available to communicants at every Mass where there are sufficient Extraordinary Ministers. (Thank you to the Ministers for their extra service; feel free to allow the Ordinary Ministers to consume the remaining Precious Blood if you prefer. It is always to be consumed, never poured into the sacrarium). It has been exactly four years since we suspended the practice as a Covid-19 precaution. We now know that transmission of this illness, like cold and flu, is overwhelmingly airborne. Not to say impossible but given the high alcohol content of altar wine to prevent spoilage, and the careful cleansing and turning of the chalice after each reception, highly unlikely.

March 17, 2024 -p3

Pastors are allowed to make this decision according to the local situation. Other parishes may choose not to do so. We will begin with one chalice up front and one in the back while we judge the demand; you may cross over to the other line when necessary. While there is always some risk in communal exercises, so too of being a Christian and a member of Christ's Body. I believe the sign value of receiving both the Body and Blood of Christ is worth the risk, unless you are ill or your health is compromised. Jesus said, "take this, all of you, and drink from it." The Church teaches that in receiving either the Body or the Blood of Christ, we receive the whole Christ, so your personal preference will not be questioned. When not receiving the Precious Blood, simply bow your head to acknowledge the Eucharistic Presence as you pass by—as we do the Sacred Host—rather than ignore it.

In Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

(Mrs. Lauren Whalen's
3rd Grade)

On March 5th, our students in Grades one through eight participated in the Stations of the Cross in Church. The best lessons are the ones that the students experience hands-on. Journeying through the Stations of the Cross is a great way for them to understand the true meaning of what Jesus experienced on Good Friday. The week before they attend the Stations, they read and study them in the classroom. For most students in the older grades, the material is a review, however, it is not until they are in Church, using the children's booklets to pray and reflect, that these lessons are fully understood. We look forward to our Lenten Penance services at the end of the month to continue our preparation for a blessed Easter.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised Israel "a new covenant": the Lord's law will be written in our hearts and known by all who believe. Do you know people who seem to have a heart-felt faith?

Second Reading:

Hebrews teaches us that Jesus struggled with his own impending suffering and death. During this Lenten season, what has been a struggle for you?

Gospel:

Jesus taught that through his own suffering and death, he would drive out the "ruler of this world" (Satan) and draw everyone to himself. In what ways are you drawn to Christ?
