SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION FOR ADULTS

For information contact Deacon William Molloy - deaconbill@olbs-queens.org

From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Palm Sunday! This is always a beautiful day for family dinners as we begin the holiest week of our Christian calendar. Keep a palm cross in your home throughout the year. Reconciliation Monday is an important step in the culmination of our Lenten journey. We want to come to the Feast with hearts and minds made pure. Note that throughout the three local dioceses the general time of confessions is 2-4 and 6-9pm. Ours differs because the dioceses have changed it year to year after we sent our schedule to the printer. At OLBS, after the 7 and 9 Masses and from 4-8pm confessions will be heard. Please plan on celebrating the Easter Triduum in its entirety, if at all possible. It is here that we express our identity as the Body of Christ in this neighborhood and grow in appreciation of God's love for us and our mission to share it.

In Christ, Father Bob

THANK YOU FOR YOUR MEMORIAL GIFTS

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

This week during the Family Mass, the children are invited to process in carrying their palm branches. This is another way that our students are living the lessons that they read in class. They learn that on Palm Sunday, Jesus is entering into Jerusalem, and the people are greeting him and waving palm. They also studied the Triduum, and the three days are approaching quickly. We encourage and invite all families to attend Mass each week, however, if you can bring your children to the Masses during Holy week, they can once again experience the lessons they read first hand. A blessed Palm Sunday to all!
